INJURY DATA

The NFL's most recent injury data.

The NFL released its most recent injury data on October 15, 2019. The injury data is compiled and analyzed by IQVIA (formerly Quintiles), an independent third-party company retained by the NFL.

The injury data below includes available statistics on a broad range of injuries, including numbers from 2012 – 2019 for the incidence of reported concussions in the preseason and regular season.

For more information, see our 2017, 2016, and 2015 injury data reports.
